

PAPGA Member Benefits

- Legislative Watchdog – The Governmental Affairs Committee, in concert with our lobbyist, Kathy Speaker-MacNett, serves as industry spokesperson and liaison to legislators as well as the regulatory agencies on the state and federal level. Legislation is constantly monitored and they strive to work towards sound and cost effective legislative and regulatory changes
- PAPGA publishes a newsletter three times per year. It goes to nearly 350 propane businesses. The newsletter keeps you informed of industry news, seminars and meeting dates. It's a great tool and a fantastic advertising opportunity!
- PAPGA runs a series of CETP training classes at deeply discounted fees. Classes are held throughout Pennsylvania.
- PAPGA picks up the $100 Annual Service Fee for the PA One Call System. State law requires you to notify PA One Call System three days prior to disturbing the earth with any type of powered equipment or ten days working notice when in the design phase. When you receive an invoice from PA One Call Systems, submit the invoice (via mail, fax or email) to PAPGA's office. We will confirm your membership and send to PA One Call Systems marked paid.
- PAPGA Staff is available to assist you with industry related questions. We're here to make your life a little easier. Anytime you need assistance, simply contact the association office and they'll do their very best to help.
- PAPGA publishes a Membership & Information Directory. Each PAPGA member receives a complimentary copy of the directory... a valuable resource.
- Networking Opportunities - Meaningful educational seminars, as well as social gatherings with industry peers such as the golf outing and annual meeting in June.
- PAPGA Members receive a FREE link from PAPGA's web site to your business!
- Debt Collection Service – Through IC Systems, PAPGA assists you in collecting your bad debts. No matter what size the accounts, all of IC Systems collection programs are designed to produce results – professional, ethically and effectively. You will receive a discounted rate when using this service.
- PAPGA's website – members only area offers access to the legislative/regulatory information that affects their business. The website is kept current and up-to-date. Check frequently for updated information.
- There are many occasions for advertising and/or sponsorship opportunities. Newsletter and directory advertising are available as well as sponsorships at all membership meetings.
