Harrisburg, PA – The Pennsylvania Propane Foundation has announced its sponsorship of the 2011 HOMExpo, presented by the Pennsylvania Manufactured Housing Association (PMHA).

This year’s event will be held April 29 – May 1st at the York Expo Center in York, PA. Thousands of people from the Mid-Atlantic Region are expected to attend this premier showcase for the factory-built housing industry.

HOMExpo is billed as ‘Everything for Your Home and More’ and will focus on craftsmanship, variety, diversity and new industry trends.

Current and prospective homeowners will have the opportunity to see and learn more about the latest home enhancements and services from industry experts. Exhibitors will include a wide range of products and services for traditional homes plus apartments, vacation homes and even hunting cabins.

“The Pennsylvania Propane Foundation is proud to once again partner with PMHA for HOMExpo,” said Shelby Metzger, Executive Director. “Propane and the factory-built housing industries have always worked closely together to provide affordable, efficient and beautiful homes for families.
